

$|w\rangle$

A 2D coordinate system is shown with two axes. The vertical axis is labeled $|w\rangle$ at its top. The horizontal axis is labeled $|s\rangle$ at its right end. Both axes are represented by black lines with arrowheads at their ends. The axes are perpendicular to each other, forming a right angle at the origin.

$|s\rangle$